

Prabhat Kumar College, Contai
MA Fourth Semester Examination 2025

Subject: English

Course: ENG402A

Literature of the Indian Sub-Continent: Fiction and Non-Fiction in English

The figures in the margin indicate full marks. Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable.

Full Marks-40

Time-2 Hrs

Group-A

(Answer any TWO of the following:) 10X2=20

1. My Experiments with Truth is more spiritual than historical. Discuss.
2. "The fascinating personality of the narrator colours the narration in Kanthapura." - Elucidate.
3. Bring out the significance of the title of R.K. Narayan's novel, The Guide.
4. Consider U. R. Ananthamurthy's Samskara as a religious allegory.

Group-B

(Comment on any FOUR of the following:) 5X4=20

5. Gandhi's views on Brahmacharya.
6. The social abuses as narrated in Kanthapura.
7. Malgudi as a setting for The Guide.
8. Raju as a model prisoner.
9. The role of Putta.
10. The ending of Samskara.

(Internal Assessment-10)

Prabhat Kumar College, Contai
MA Fourth Semester Examination 2025

Subject: English

Course: ENG402A

Literature of the Indian Sub-Continent: Fiction and Non-Fiction in English

The figures in the margin indicate full marks. Candidates are required to give their answers in their own words as far as practicable.

Full Marks-40

Time-2 Hrs

Group-A

(Answer any TWO of the following:) 10X2=20

1. My Experiments with Truth is more spiritual than historical. Discuss.
2. "The fascinating personality of the narrator colours the narration in Kanthapura." - Elucidate.
3. Bring out the significance of the title of R.K. Narayan's novel, The Guide.
4. Consider U. R. Ananthamurthy's Samskara as a religious allegory.

Group-B

(Comment on any FOUR of the following:) 5X4=20

5. Gandhi's views on Brahmacharya.
6. The social abuses as narrated in Kanthapura.
7. Malgudi as a setting for The Guide.
8. Raju as a model prisoner.
9. The role of Putta.
10. The ending of Samskara.

(Internal Assessment-10)